Timothy H. Wolf

Timothy H. Wolf is a partner with Katz Baskies & Wolf PLLC. In addition to his experience in probate and trust litigation, Tim has advised clients in a wide range of disputes involving commercial contracts, complex financial instruments, restrictive covenants and related employment issues, corporate control and governance, and specialized securities matters. As such, Tim has extensive experience advising individual clients as well as Fortune 500 companies. Clients and colleagues rely on Tim for his practical advice, his ability to see the big picture and his proficiency in navigating and negotiating complex disputes.

In early 2020, Tim returned to his hometown of Boca Raton, Florida to join Katz Baskies & Wolf PLLC. Prior to that, Tim practiced as a litigator in New York City, most recently as a Partner with Mintz & Gold LLP.

Tim graduated from the Washington University in St. Louis School of Law in 2006, where he was a finalist in the Jeffrey G. Miller National Environmental Law Moot Court Competition. This national recognition, along with his success in other moot court competitions, earned Tim the Samuel M. Breckenridge Practice Court Award, which is given to a member of the graduating class for proficiency and excellence in moot court competition. Prior to that, Tim graduated from the George Washington University in Washington, D.C. in 2002. During his time in Washington, D.C., Tim clerked in the United States House of Representatives and also served as a law clerk and paralegal at Williams & Connolly LLP.

Tim is a member of the Florida and New York Bars, and is also admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. He is also a member of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of the Florida Bar, as well as of the South Palm Beach County Bar Association.
